

What is my 'country code'?

The country code is a unique identifier for each country participating in the GMMP, intended to facilitate the data analysis. The code is located on the far left column of the media bands charts against each country. To find your code, locate your country on the chart and note the 3-digit number in the cell to the left of your country name.